

JEROME ARREST DELAYS THAW CASE LOVE STORY OF HARRY AND EVELYN

Big Demonstration for Harry at Coaticook as the Opposing Lawyer Is Seized.

and you are here trying to kidnap Thaw," said a man in the crowd. Lanyon was rushed by the crowd and would have suffered serious injury if the spectators had not come to his aid.

Constable Andrews, when he made the arrest, went up to Mr. Jerome and touched him upon the shoulder, said: "I want you, Mr. Jerome."

The professional New Yorker, thinking it was a joke, replied:

"Well, as far as I am concerned, I was a joke, replied."

It was not until he read the warrant that Jerome realized the seriousness of the situation.

There was a great demonstration at the court house. Men and women joined the crowd. Some were shouting, "Free Thaw," and others were shouting, "Free Thaw."

Played "Penny Ante."

The warrant for Jerome's arrest was issued on an incident which happened yesterday.

While Jerome and his defense lawyer were seated in a waiting car outside the immigration office awaiting the result of the deportation hearing, the "Penny Ante" game was being played.

The fellow players of the "Penny Ante" game were old friends, and as the game was a friendly one, nobody was thinking of the fact that the law might be upon them.

Lanyon was seated Jerome, although he showed an intimate knowledge of the game of "Penny Ante," played a hand which was within less than half an hour of the game's end.

The game was an interesting one and a crowd of interested onlookers surrounded the automobile. One of the many spectators of Thaw's case was a young man who was sitting in a chair.

He was called away to an office at the end of the game.

"All Right, Officer, Lead On."

This person was William Aldridge, a local business man, who believes Thaw is innocent and ought to be free. He was seated next to Jerome and Constable Andrews to serve.

The constable went to the Coaticook house, where Mr. Jerome is staying. Jerome had finished his breakfast.

Jerome was waiting for the order that would put Thaw in his hands.

He was sitting on the curbstone outside the station, studying a road map, picking out the route by which he intended to go to Thaw.

Thaw stood at the window of the and was just leaving for the scene of the demonstration hearing when Constable Andrews presented himself and handed the warrant to Jerome.

He read it with a look of surprise and then he said:

"All right, officer, lead on," said he. He then turned to Constable Andrews and said: "I want you, Mr. Jerome."

The warrant was drawn up by Constable Andrews. Mr. Aldridge informed the constable that he would be on hand as the proceeding witness.

"We will give this case Jerome a state of his own medicine," said he. However, Mr. Jerome did not seem to be much perturbed.

Crowd Surrounds Jail.

From the office of the justice of the peace, Jerome was taken to the same jail in which Thaw was confined when he was first brought here.

Under the "Penny Ante" game, Jerome must be within twenty-four hours after his arrest.

News of the arrest of Thaw's friends were about the time his friends were about the jail.

There was great speculation as to whether complications might result from the arrest of a New York State officer.

A lawyer rushed to Thaw with the news. The fugitive rushed with laughter.

He nearly fell out of his chair.

The learned counsel for the

THAW IS CLOSELY GUARDED AGAINST KIDNAPING PLOT

COATICOOK, P. Q., Sept. 5.—When Thaw is deported his exit will bring up the curtain on a new fight—between Jerome and Thaw's friends.

Burns men are guarding Thaw against "kidnaping." Jerome and Captain Lanyon have openly declared that they mean to seize Thaw when he is taken to New York by automobile. Jerome says Vermont will not interfere.

The fight between the two forces will be to seize Thaw when he is taken to New York as he would, as will the Burns men.

This morning, before his own arrest, Jerome was waiting for the order that would put Thaw in his hands.

He was sitting on the curbstone outside the station, studying a road map, picking out the route by which he intended to go to Thaw.

FIND M'VICARS OF HARVARD WED FOR OVER YEAR

The chase about a woman not being able to keep a secret does not apply to Mrs. Guy M. McVicar, wife of the Harvard oarsman, who was wed over a year ago, but who kept news of the most important event of her life from even her most intimate friends until it became known today. Nor was McVicar himself any more communicative on the subject. Mrs. McVicar was Miss Marion White of Cambridge. The two were neighbors. It was known that he was attentive to the supposed still "Miss White," but it was not even guessed that they were married and that he had decided not to take the remaining year of his college course until the fact of their marriage at Nashua, N. H., was made known through the discovery by a male friend of the groom.

Luscious Grapes are more Tasty than Dry Raisins

Dried-out raisins cannot be compared to Nature's luscious Grapes. Tobacco when pressed in Plug form has more flavor, fragrance and smoking quality than when sliced or granulated for convenience sake.

Chopping or granulating ruins the natural tobacco flavor, as it cannot retain its natural moisture, and every bit of evaporated moisture takes with it some of Nature's good tobacco flavor.

The only way to retain all the flavor is to put the whole leaves under pressure, into Plug form, covering it with a natural leaf wrapper: thereby retaining all of its natural flavor and moisture.

Prove this today by buying a plug of Master Workman tobacco. Whittle off a fresh pipe load, and enjoy a slow burning cool smoke of delicious flavor.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 5.—The Boston printers were the lucky winners in the draw for the first and last of the first round after having won only one game. Today they play in the south and will have for their opponents the other Chicago of Washington. If the latter, Boston will probably win and then play in the final against Chicago on Saturday.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 5.—Frank L. Kramer, champion professional, splitting with the draw for the first and last of the first round after having won only one game. Today they play in the south and will have for their opponents the other Chicago of Washington. If the latter, Boston will probably win and then play in the final against Chicago on Saturday.

Preparations for the coming football season are already under way at the Waltham High School. The squad will have its second practice today under the direction of Captain Harold Johnson. Coach Harry Fane will not assume charge until next Monday. Nine players will be out for the team, although there is some doubt as to whether "Holt" Fane, Ralph Johnson and Holey will return.

Moran Now Eager to Meet 'Gunboat' Smith

'White Hopes' May Be Signed to Clash in Bout for Championship

By JACK CONWAY.
FRANK MORAN, the big Pittsburgh heavyweight who knocked out Al Palmer in seven rounds in New York Wednesday night is today trying to secure a bout with "Gunboat" Smith for the white heavy-weight championship of the world. Moran and Smith are old rivals. They clashed in a twenty-round battle on the coast after Moran had returned from Europe after winning a large number of hard battles and Smith won. That was the fight that made Smith a national "warrior." Arthur Kelly, the Chicago giant, declares he is the white heavyweight title holder as a result of the win over the late "Lancer" McCarthy. Kelly's claim is not considered seriously by fight "fans." Almost every boxing expert in the country admits that Kelly gained prominence merely by a chance bout. He was not a heavy before he fought McCarthy and is not much better today. "Gunboat" Smith has proved himself to be the best of the "white hopes." He has victories over Joe Willard and Frank Moran, who he knocked out George Loebl, Joe Willard and Jim Fyfe. After Smith had landed a dream victory in his bout with Fyfe, he declared he was willing to battle any champion in the world. He did not even bar Jack Johnson or Sam Langford. We do not believe Smith was in earnest when he stated that he would fight Johnson or Langford. "Gunboat" is a punch, tough and will in a knock-out punch in either hand but he is not much better today.

CAN MATTY BEAT MURPHY? That is now the New York "fight fan" who would like to see another bout between Matty Baldwin and Eddie Murphy. These two men fought at the Pugini A. A. a year ago last June in the middle of the writer's head. Baldwin was a draw by the referee. Murphy had a good fight with Baldwin while the latter was in the ring. Baldwin was in the ring with a red in the last three rounds of the bout. Baldwin, however, will not meet Murphy unless he is able to win the fight. It is a question whether Murphy would be willing to reduce to the lightweight limit.
